

What My Clients Say!

“Michael is an outstanding real estate professional whom we’ve had the pleasure of working with for years. Not only does he have expert knowledge of the Portland metropolitan area, he has an excellent network to tap into to make the buying or selling your home (in our case, both) go flawlessly. And he is there to help even after a sale is done. I highly recommend him!”

“Michael has worked with our company over the last 20+ years on many different occasions with many different clients. Michael is a true professional that puts his client’s needs above his own, is very honest in his presentations, and is committed to performing his skill for the best result for his clients. He is both knowledgeable in all aspects of Real Estate, and listens to his customers needs. We recommend him with great pride, in the spirit of well trained and seasoned veteran of the Real Estate market place.

“I highly recommend Michael Caplan. His expertise in the Portland market as well as his unwavering dedication as a service provider led me to a get outcome – a wonderful property – my Portland dream home – that appraised higher than my purchase price. By the way, this was accomplished in the span of 2 weeks.

What My Clients Say!

“Michael is awesome! He helped me buy and sell my home in Portland and I’ve referred my friends and family to him when they have real estate needs in PDX. He was highly referred to me by my own family. Michael is extremely knowledgeable, knows the area inside and out, has tons of referrals for business and services which comes in handy when you have just moved to a new town and know no one. Michael took care of us like family and I consider him a trusted adviser. On both sides of the transaction, he got us the best contract; I wouldn’t hesitate to use him again”

“Michael came highly recommended to me by a colleague, and he shepherded my husband and I through the home buying process with ease. His customer service is unequalled, and is personable and professional. I would not hesitate to use his services again and often recommend him to friends and colleagues. Thanks for the hard work, Michael!”

“Michael helped us relocate to Portland from Texas. He was always available by cell phone to answer questions. More that I can say for my selling agent in Texas. He coordinated some repairs before we moved. In general, he took a lot of stress out of a hard move. Since then he keeps in touch and I would certainly use him again and recommend him fully”

What My Clients Say!

“Michael had great insight to the real estate market. He gave us great advice and we sold our apartment in NY a week later. He was also very patient with us for almost a year! Took us out to look at homes throughout the year and we finally found the perfect home, thanks to Michael. I would recommend him to any of my family and friends”
